

Head Teacher - Ingrid Sidmouth

30th January 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am delighted to tell you that as a result of a rigorous and competitive process, the Governors have offered the role of Headteacher to Mr Mike Loveridge, our current Deputy Headteacher, who has accepted the appointment.

I am particularly pleased to report that the competition was very strong and that Mr Loveridge achieved on merit as the panel decided that he was the right choice for Rowdeford.

Mike will commence the role in September and the next few months will enable the School to appoint a new Deputy Head Teacher and to ensure a smooth transition following the retirement of Mrs Sidmouth in July.

We are expecting Mr Loveridge to take Rowdeford forward to new heights and he has accepted this challenge with enthusiasm. I hope that you will all give Mr Loveridge your full support going forward.

With very best wishes,

Nigel Halkes,
Chair of Governors
